Westwerk is a digitally forward agency driven by smart design

OUR PHILOSOPHY

We think that, in work as in life, you get the best results when you keep it simple. For us, that's meant hiring smart, talented people, doing great work and being honest with our clients.

LOAD MORE

---

1. Sticky Header should stay on top of the screen as the user scrolls.

2. Content is centered both vertically and horizontally.

3. Text content should be both vertically and horizontally centered. On mobile, boxes should stack and content should remain centered.

4-5. Accordions should be collapsed on initial page load. When clicked, the item should expand downwards, and any open items should close.

6. Employees should be drawn from the provided employees.json. Grid should be 4-per-row on desktop, 3-per-row on tablet, and 2-per-row on mobile.

7. When clicked, the next 4 employee items should load via AJAX. Once there are no more employees, the button should disappear.
